

One Night - Barclay James Harvest
by Bundyboy.com

G                    Am                    C                    Em
You took all my mo~ney~                    I left you no name~
C                    Em                    Am                    D
My love and my mo~ney~    did you think I would chase it in the rain~
G                    Am                    C                    Em
My eyes are now o~pen~                    but what do I see~
C                    Em                    Am                    D
when right after mid~night~    had I thought it would mean that much to me~

Am                    G                    D                    Am                    D
Everybody needs someone to love~                    everybody needs a friend~
Am                    C                    D                    G                    C                    D
Everybody needs someone to care~    do you think you can make it in the end~    do you
C                    Em                    C                    Em                    C
think that you can make it~~    my~ friend~~

G                    Am                    C                    Em
I thought it was ea~sy~                    but what did I know~
C                    Em                    Am                    D
of old men and first blood~    or the drunk who gets taken blow by blow~
G                    Am                    C                    Em
The dice are all loa~ded~                    you pay by the throw~
C                    Em                    Am                    D
but you pay the lo~ser~    seems the rain~    is turning into snow~

Am                    G                    D                    Am                    D
Everybody needs someone to love~                    everybody needs a friend~
Am                    C                    D                    G                    C                    D
Everybody needs someone to care~    do you think you can make it in the end~    do you
C                    Em                    C                    Em                    C
think that you can make it~~    my~ friend~~

G                    Am                    C                    Em
We stand round your door~ways~                    you hang on the walls~

